

Sinclair Broadcasting is going to air a clearly political ad to 25% of American households, with out giving equal time to the other side. This is clearly a violation of electoral policy thaat demands equal access to publically owned media. This violation should be considered during the license renewal process, whether the program airs or not. And the larger question might be - how was one corporation allowed to gain control of such a large portion of public airways.

Thank you.